Dear Mr Ruysenaars

The Kenyo Kesho Trust

On the basis of the information provided, we have accepted The Kenyo Kesho Trust as a charity for tax purposes under our reference XT29876 with effect from 27 October 2008.

I have noted you as the authorised official on behalf of the charity. If this is not the case then a ChV1 will be required confirming the details of who the signatory should be.

For tax purposes, The Kenyo Kesho Trust is a charitable Trust.

What you need to do

- Keep this letter safe. It is the charity's evidence that it can claim the available tax exemptions.
- Pass it on to any successor and ask them to notify us of the change of authorised official on form ChV1, which is available from our website.
- Use form ChV1 to notify us of any changes to the charity. This includes changes in nominees, a change of name or changes to banking details.

Gift Aid

Only payments received after 27 October 2008 can be eligible for the Gift Aid scheme. All the forms you need to reclaim Gift Aid are available on our website along with detailed guidance on the Gift Aid scheme.

Claims for repayment must be made within 4 years of the end of the tax year, or company accounting period, in which the Gift Aid donations were received. We cannot make repayments on claims that are received outside that time limit.

Information is available in large print, audio tape and Braille formats.
Text Relay service prefix number - 18001

The Tax Exemption

Income and capital gains arising in the course of charitable activities are normally covered by the tax exemption. But you should be aware that this might not apply where you have:

- significant levels of trading outside the primary purpose of the charity or
- expended funds for non-charitable purposes or
- made non-qualifying loans or investments.

Your Tax Obligation

If you think there may be tax to pay you should let us know as soon as possible. Charities, like everyone else are subject to the usual tax obligation to notify chargeability.

Tax Returns

Charities fall within the Self Assessment taxation legislation and if a charity incurs a tax liability or is asked to complete a tax return it must do so. The relevant forms can be obtained from the telephone order-line number (0845 300 6555 for Companies and 0845 9000 404 for Trusts) or by direct download from the website. Please note that accounts should only be submitted with a completed Tax Return.

Further information

The HMRC website contains information and guidance on the tax reliefs and exemptions available to charities and their donors. Go to www.hmrc.gov.uk and click on 'Charities & Donors' (under 'Quick Links').

Information about the Gift Aid scheme is given in Chapter 3 of the Detailed Guidance Notes.
